Children of Heroes Scholarship Reveals
Los Angeles, CA

This year, we've awarded over 360
scholarships
totaling over $1 million.

Savannah Lerian
2024 Scholar

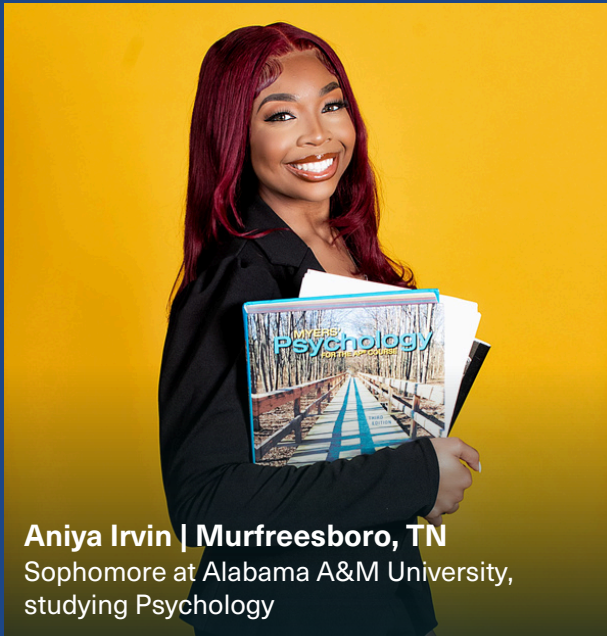

Dear First Responder Children's Foundation and SB Project, Words cant express how grateful I am for your gift to assist me with college. Then to receive the added support for my foundation has been such a blessing. I love knowing that as I work to become a vet, more kids than ever will become leaders each summer at camp. Please let me know where I can help you both and I would to serve anyway I can. From spending the weekend with new friends, meeting each one of you and surviving the interview... this was an experience
I will never forget.
love, Savannah Lerian

Scholarships

Aniya Irvin | Murfreesboro, TN
Sophomore at Alabama A&M University, studying Psychology

"This scholarship has supported me a lot financially. My university costs a lot for the little amount of scholarship opportunities given within the school. Having this outside scholarship helped me pay my tuition without having to take out any loans. I am appreciative that I was able to have this opportunity to start my off college career. Thank you."

This summer, Aniya spoke on behalf of First Responders Children's Foundation at the SERVPRO Convention in Nashville, where she was presented with a $5,000 scholarship for the upcoming academic year.

Scholar Erika Johnson represented the Foundation at the second annual SERVPRO First Responders Golf Tournament in Carthage, MO.
